Vice Admiral William F. Raborn, USN (Ret)
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D. C.

Dear Admiral Raborn:

STATINTLOS I wish to bring to your personal attention the fact that your staff provided me an excellent briefing on North and South Korea on 12 November. The presentations of [REDACTED] were well-developed and precisely what I was seeking as background for my job as Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense (International Security Affairs) for the Far East.

The arrangements for the briefing, made by [REDACTED] were also excellent and prompt.

Would you be so kind as to extend my appreciation to the aforementioned members of your staff for a job "well done."

Sincerely,

Alvin Friedman
Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense
(International Security Affairs)
